IN MEMORIAM JAMES J. HARRINGTON

November 22, 1905 - February 8, 1967

The students of the High School of Commerce will greatly miss Mr. James J. Harrington, who died February 8, 1967. Mr. Harrington taught typing at Commerce from 1958 until 1967, and his death was indeed a terrible shock and a tremendous loss to his family and all of us at the High School of Commerce.

Mr. Harrington was graduated from American International College in 1945 with a B.S. Degree. In 1947 he secured from Springfield College his Masters Degree in Education. From 1945-46, he taught business subjects at Chicopee High School.

For eight years, from 1950-58, Mr. Harrington took great pride in teaching the general auxiliary class at Chestnut Junior High School. He then came to Commerce, where he taught until this year. Mr. Harrington leaves his wife Sally and three children.

We at the High School of Commerce will always remember Mr. Harrington not only as a wonderful teacher, but also as a kind of loving individual. Certainly one who derived such pleasure as he did through helping the young and needy must indeed possess much patience and understanding. Mr. Harrington always loved children. We will always love him.

IN DEDICATION TO MR. RAYMOND ELLISON

This year the High School of Commerce salutes Mr. Raymond H. Ellison who has recently completed ten years as adviser to the Caduceus Yearbook Staff. His guidance has proved invaluable in helping his students to create the annual yearbook, Caduceus.

Having begun his advising career in 1957, Mr. Ellison has been highly praised by his immediate supervisors for doing an "excellent and outstanding" job. Mr. Ellison's tenure as adviser was culminated last year when the High School of Commerce yearbook received a first-class rating.

Those who worked on the yearbook staff are well aware of the invaluable assistance they obtained from Mr. Ellison. There were numerous occasions when he gave up much of his leisure time to proofread names or layouts in order to alleviate the burdens of his students.

Mr. Ellison was graduated from Clark University in 1942 with an A.B. Degree. In 1948 he secured his A.M. Degree from Brown University. After teaching for three years at Milford Preparatory School, Mr. Ellison came to the High School of Commerce in 1955, where he has been teaching English ever since.

Mr. Ellison leaves his position in the capable hands of Mr. Thaddeus J. Ciesluk, to whom all the members of the Caduceus Staff wish the best of luck. The Staff will always remember and appreciate the excellent and invaluable advice which had been bestowed on them by Mr. Ellison.

OREWORD

For the past three years, a student has made the High School of Commerce his home away from home. One of the most important facets of a high school education is the possession of enthusiasm toward one's work, toward one's fellow students and teachers, and perhaps most important, toward one's school. This enthusiasm is the magic ingredient called School Spirit. It originates when a student is willing to give of himself to make his school better. Because we the students feel that this plays a very important part in all activities in school life, we dedicate the 1967 Caduceus to School Spirit.

General Organization was organized to help finance school activities. For a nominal fee the student receives such benefits as a reduced price on Caduceus, the school yearbook; tickets to various athletic events; and free copies of the school newspaper, Commerce. Funds from G. O. finance several assemblies held throughout the year. Students are recommended for the G. O. accounting homeroom by their first year bookkeeping teacher. They are responsible for maintaining and recording the different phases of the organization.

Putting out the paper are Brenda Smith, Doreen Coltey, Josephine Broska, Anne Gates, and Editor-in-Chief Christine Deraeau.

Our students are kept informed of the important school events by Commerce, the school newspaper. Under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Connell, Commerce is published nine times a year by the students of the English 6 class. This year the editor-in-chief is Christine Deraeau. Always sure to comment on things of interest, the paper is an excellent source of school, alumni and athletic news.

Caduceus Reminisces

Caduceus, the school yearbook, is an annual enterprise. The Editorial Staff, which designs the book and composes the written portions, is supervised this year by Mr. Ciesluk and Mr. Ellison. The Pictorial Staff, supervised by Miss McCleary, supplies pictures; and the Business Department takes care of advertising and other financial matters. It is supervised by Mr. Alminas and Mr. Mazurowski. The yearbook consists of pictures of the student classes, sports, and activities. These pictures will be especially interesting and beneficial for remembering school years.

Spotlight on Youth Reports

Sheila McMahon and Sandi Stanek are this year's reporters for the Spotlight on Youth section, which appears in the Sunday Republican. With the advice of Mr. Melvin Grant, these girls write about the clubs and events within the school. All area high schools are represented in the Spotlight on Youth section.

National Honor Society Sponsors Scholarships

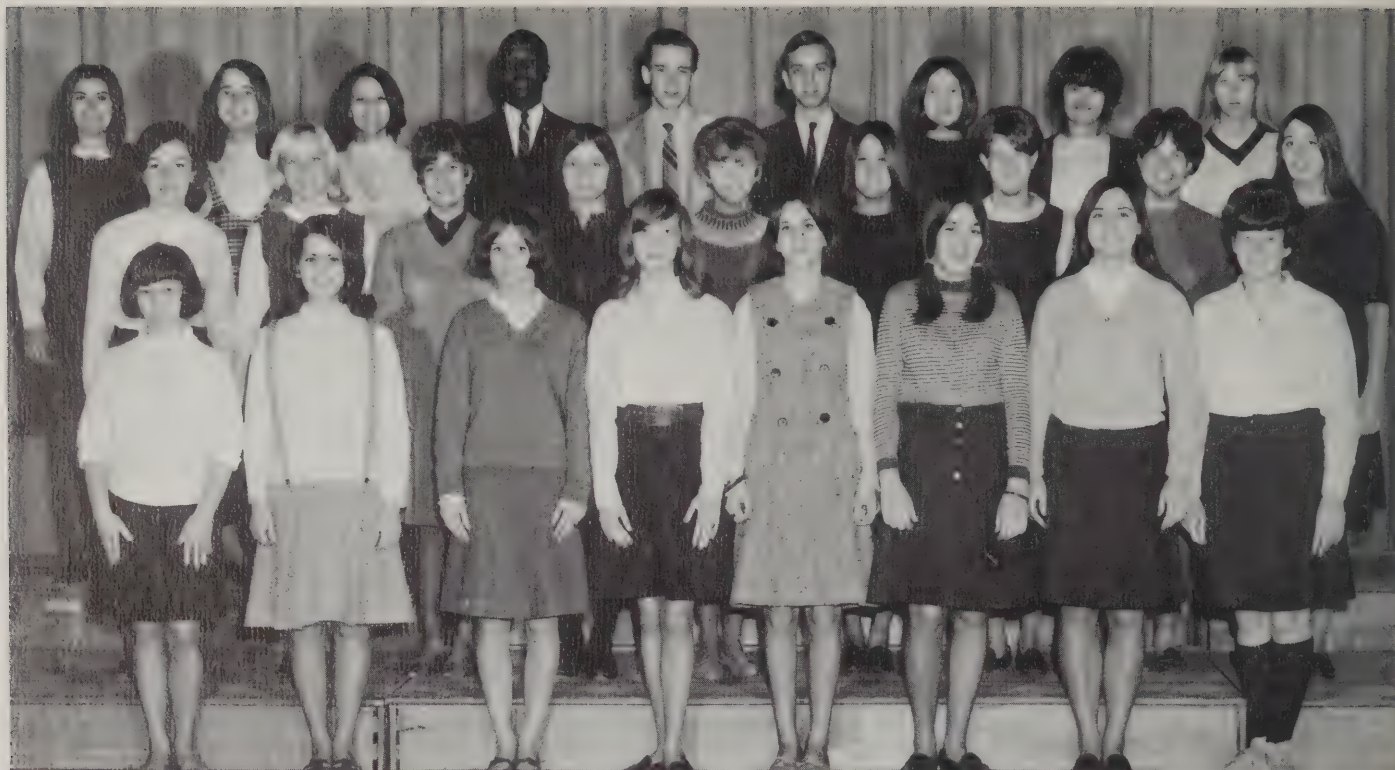

The members of the Stanley O. Smith Chapter of the National Honor Society are chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service, and patriotism. In October new members are formally inducted. To raise money for the Helen E. Rankin Scholarship Fund members run a paperback bookstall in Room 221 and sell plastic year-book covers. In addition to the monthly business meetings, several social meetings are held. Talented people within the school entertain the members and invited guests.

Student Council Leads

Members of the Student Council sell bus tickets in the cafeteria.

The Student Council is composed of the officers and six representatives of each class, the captain of the Student Patrol, and the editor-in-chief of the school newspaper. Their activities include collecting canned goods for the Salvation Army, distributing Freshman handbooks, and selling bus tickets in the school cafeteria. They are also responsible for choosing Senior Standouts.

Student Patrol Maintains Order

The Student Patrol was established to help enforce the rules which are necessary to keep a large school functioning properly. It is composed of more than 75 students who are recommended by their teachers. The adviser of the patrol this year is Mr. Finnegan, and its office is located between rooms 123 and 124.

Eileen Ziviak, Jody Poehler, and Donna Schmidt illustrate a Moon Maid "Mod" dance to futuristic music.

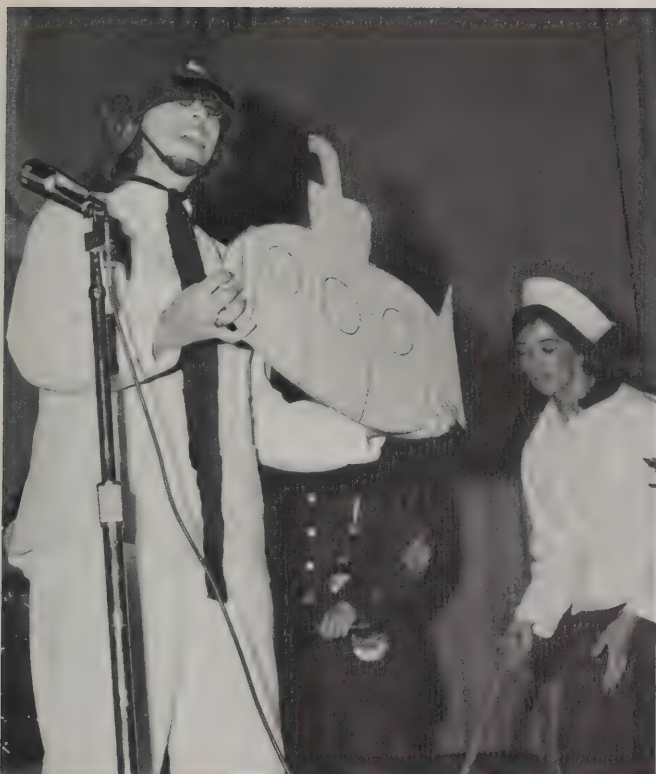

A trip through the time tunnel brought the audience back to the days of the Keystone Cops and the flippant flappers. Passing through the fifties and sixties, we traveled into the future where we enjoyed the wild music and dancing of the Moon Maids.

Costumes worn throughout the show reflected the fashions of yesterday and tomorrow.

Mark Gelinas portrays Elvis with his stirring ballad.

Red Cross Council Donates Services

Helping people in need is the purpose of the Red Cross Council. Its activities began in November with a Junior Red Cross enrollment drive. This year $153 was raised. Other projects this organization has undertaken include baking cookies for the patients of the V.A. Hospital and making decorations for the Holyoke Soldiers Home and the V.A. Hospital.

Future Nurses Club Plans Nursing Careers

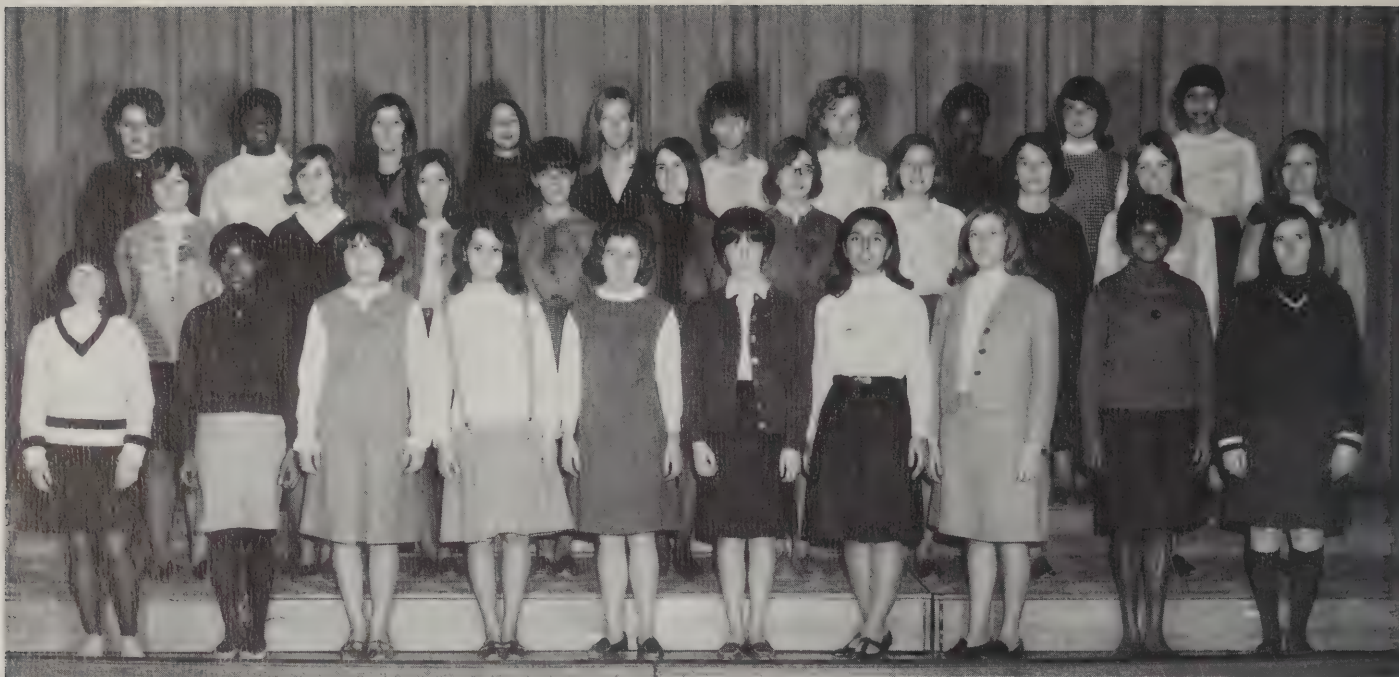

The members of the Future Nurses Club are interested in becoming nurses or hospital technicians. Attending the open houses of various hospitals and inviting guest speakers to their meetings enable the members to learn about the important aspects of a nursing career. One of their speakers discussed the training and qualifications needed by bacteriologists, laboratory technicians and medical technicians. As part of their service projects, the club sponsored a party for the patients of the Ring Nursing Home.

Mr. Robert J. Doolan of the University of Massachusetts speaks to interested students.

Doreen Sisk and Helen Menzel welcome Mr. Rae James Malcolm of Western New England College and Mr. Esther Hanson of American International College.

Future Teachers of America Prepare for Teaching

For those interested in teaching careers, the Future Teachers of America offers excellent opportunities to become acquainted with the duties, responsibilities and the rewards of teaching. One of these opportunities has been the Orientation Day held in October. Ten representatives from area colleges discussed the entrance requirements, campus life, and degrees offered at their respective colleges. In addition, guest speakers addressed the club on various phases of the teaching profession. The club also sponsored a bake sale to raise funds for their scholarship program.

Math Club Calculates

Our Math Club is comprised of students who wish to further their understanding of mathematics. The members of the club have organized a tutoring service for pupils needing help in this subject. This year, the club became a member of the Western Massachusetts Mathematics League.

Drama Club Performs

The Drama Club, under the direction of Mr. Grant, was recently organized for students interested in all aspects of the theater. Tryouts for membership were held, and members were chosen on the basis of their academic achievement and ability. Time is spent studying props, lighting arrangements, and make-up, as well as drama itself.

Library assistants check the passes of all students entering the library. Here Shirley Gamble takes Nancy Bailey's.

Library Assistants Give the Library a New Look

When a student visits our library, he is aided in the location and checking out of his book by a library assistant. The assistants also keep a record of library attendance, which is submitted to the office. Collection of overdue books during the homeroom period is another duty. Still another responsibility is to cover, number and file all newly acquired books.

Lunchroom Aides Help

Lunchroom aides are essential in keeping of an orderly cafeteria. Chosen each year by Mr. Rumpal, four girls and six boys assume the responsibilities of cashiering and performing various kitchen chores. These students are recommended by their teachers on the basis of their grades and dependability.

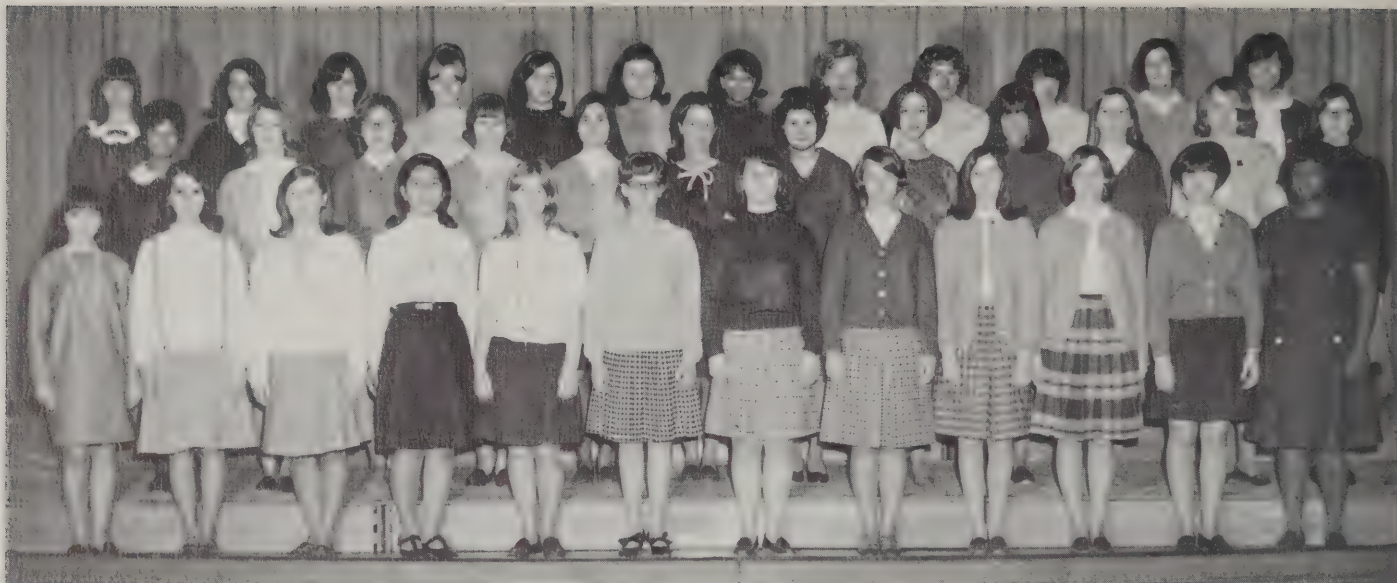

Selling milk is one of the duties of the lunchroom aides.

Audio-Visual Aides Operate Projectors

John Channing and Blair Harrington are the audio-visual aides this year. One of their chief duties is operating the record players, tape recorders, movie projectors, slide projectors, and film strip projectors for the teachers who use them. They also operate the public address system in the assembly hall. Under the guidance of Mr. Harold W. Jones, the audio-visual aides make an important contribution to the smooth functioning of school life.

Office Aides Assist

Marcia and Marilyn Roberts put a few of the supplies on display as Karen Tolman looks on.

Office aides, recommended by their teachers, perform such duties in the main office as delivering passes, sorting mail, and answering the telephone. Some girls do clerical work in the counselors' offices. This experience helps them to adjust to later office routine.

Trading Post Sells School Supplies

The Trading Post, which is located in Room 205, was established to sell items for the convenience of the faculty and students. The clerks this year are Marcia and Marilyn Roberts, and they are supervised by a faculty member, Miss Mary G. Conway. The school store stock consists of notebooks, paper, rulers, pens pencils, dictionaries, Kleenex, folders, book covers, Commerce insignia, and many other articles of great use.

Music Organization Stimulate Music Appreciation

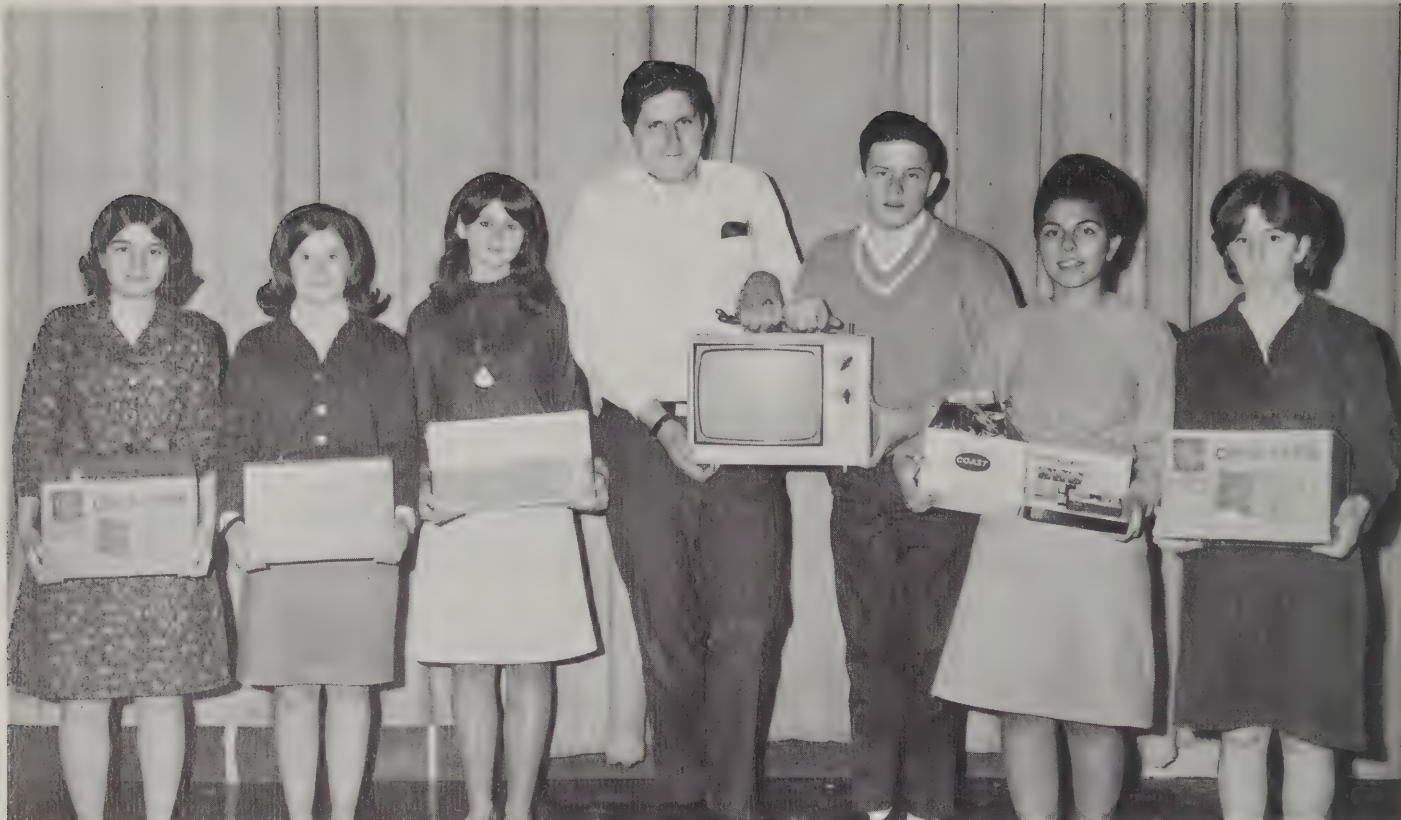

The music department includes Chorus, Glee Club, Choir, and Band. Chorus, Glee Club, and Band are elective subjects; and Choir is composed of a selected, specialized group of girls' voices. This year a Music Council has been added. The Council is a group of students representing each of the music classes, and whose chief function is to discuss ways and means of making music programs and activities more meaningful and attractive at "Commerce."

THE MUSIC COUNCIL. Seated: Debra Cariani, Cynthia Harp, Cheryl LaPan, Irma Kelly, Patricia Sullivan, Jynette McWhorter, Dennis Burd, Denise Doig, Helen Menzel, Angela Bertone, Patty Mindel, Gail Degan, Sharyn Soffan. Standing: Ronald Willette, Thomas Pitts, John Sanders. Below: The combined Chorus, Glee Club, and Choir perform at a Christmas Assembly.

Winners of the annual candy bar sale, held to raise money for certain non-budgetary things needed by the school, receive their prizes.

Assemblies Amuse and Enlighten

"Welcome back, Mr. Sweeney," is the sentiment reflected in the hand-shake of Bessie Kapetanidis.

William James was the speaker at the American Education Week Assembly and was recipient of an outstanding alumnus award presented by Mr. Sweeney.

G. O. Assembly is held to acquaint students entering the High School of Commerce with the many benefits offered by G. O.

General Motors presented an assembly to show students the various things being developed by their research laboratories.

Assemblies provide varied and interesting programs of entertainment. The G. O. Assembly is held at the beginning of each year to inform students about the benefits of G. O. The guidance counselors meet with their classes at the beginning of the month. The Honor Roll is read by the class presidents each marking period.

This year General Motors presented an exhibit of new products which they are developing. Mr. Sweeney was welcomed back from his temporary position as Assistant Superintendent. Our American Education Week speaker was William James, who received an outstanding alumnus award. Reverend James Hamer was the speaker at the annual Thanksgiving assembly. Music programs are presented to entertain the students. Also important, students get a chance to show their school spirit at rallies.

Under the watchful eyes of Coach Russo and his assistant, Mr. Joseph David, the 1966 Commerce track team won 2 and lost 4, the best record since its re-organization in 1964. Leading the Raiders to victory were Rocky Greene in the hurdles, Phil Shuman in the discus and shot put, and Gregory Seals in the sprints.

Behind the hitting of Tom Moore and Kevin Phelan, and the pitching of Donny Holmes, who won a berth on the All-City Team, the Raiders wrapped up a 7-9 record and a third-place finish in the Interschol League. The best performance by a Commerce player was that of Donny Holmes, who struck out twelve opposing players and allowed only two hits in a shutout victory over Trade.

Jimmy Liebel awaits the relay from second base on an attempted double play against Cathedral.

Forrest Bateman seems to have the upper hand in this contest.

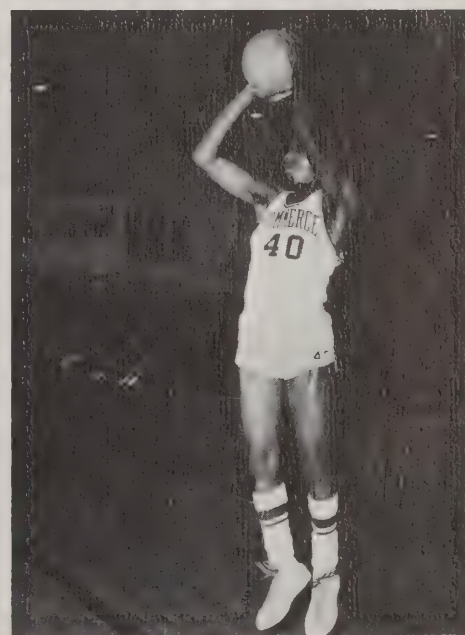

The 1966-67 varsity basketball team experienced a great season of 13 wins and 6 losses. One of the highlights of the team this year was their prominent defense, which resulted in keeping eight teams under the score of forty points. Under the able guidance of Coach Thomas Russo, the Raiders gained a berth in the Western Mass. Tournament. The most outstanding senior player this year was Forrest Bateman. Jesse Spinks and Isaac Aycox, who are freshmen, displayed outstanding skill. They are looked on to supply the muscle for another outstanding year.

Drill Team represents northeast

The cheerleaders and drill team had a spirited year. The cheerleaders were chosen from a list of candidates who had to show acrobatic and athletic qualities before they were chosen. The drill team candidates also had to possess certain qualities such as poise, coordination, and stability. These groups did more to spark school spirit than any other organizations.

The Commerce Drill Team marches in near-perfect formation at a basketball game.

Acknowledgments

The Editorial Staff and its advisers, Mr. Ciesluk and Mr. Ellison, wish to thank:

Sandra Roncolato for her original cover design. We have heard many fine comments that this year's cover was one of the best we have ever had.

Mr. Jones, our faculty photographer, for his reliable, on-the-spot service.

Judith Glenn, Eugene Theroux, and Philip Girard for the candid photos.

Mr. Alminas, Mr. Mazurowski, and their business staff, for the financing and distributing of Caduceus '67.

Mr. Sweeney, his administrative staff, and the faculty for their patience and tolerance with our necessary classroom interruptions and for their help with photo identifications.

Mrs. Ellis for compiling vital senior data promptly and willingly.

Bosworth Studio for their assistance to our student photographers, for their cooperation in photographing special evening events, and for their prompt and generous supply of extra pictures when we have needed them.

Mr. Jack Brown of T. O'Toole and Sons for his guidance and instructions in the technical production of Caduceus '67.

Mr. Ciesluk's Freshman and Junior English classes for their theme ideas.

Mr. King for his helpful suggestions on the final design of the yearbook cover.

And most of all, we wish to thank all our fellow students for their exuberant display of SCHOOL SPIRIT which is so much a part of them.

Before you accept that first job . . .

Look over your employer
as carefully as he does
you

What's the Company like anyway? Would I be proud to work there? Reputation for square dealing with employees? Pleasant surroundings?

Will I be working with others my own age? Are they friendly? Do they socialize after hours?

Will the boss be reasonable? Appreciate good, hard work, but won't explode if I make a mistake?

Will I make a decent week's pay? Have a chance for raises, advancement, more responsibility? How about fringe benefits?

Is the work challenging? I had what it takes to get through high school. Will they give me a chance to use my brains?

Note: Many young men and women in this area can answer "Yes" to these questions. They work for New England Telephone.

Why not talk with our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.
